

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION AND TRAINING MINISTRY OF JUSTICE
HANOI LAW UNIVERSITY

SUMMARY ON NEW FINDINGS OF THE DISSERTATION

Topic: Perfecting the current organization and operation of local government agencies in Viet Nam

Theme: Constitutional Law and Administrative Law; code: 62 38 10 02

Researcher: Tran Cong Dung

Supervisor: Assoc. Prof. Bui Xuan Duc

Training institution: Hanoi Law University

The dissertation is a comprehensive research about the agencies' organization and operation of the local government in the context of building the socialist rule of law state in Vietnam.

Firstly, the dissertation has established basic theoretical aspects added to the theoretical system of the constitutional law about organization and operation of the local government agencies, including: the concept, position, characteristics, and function of the local government agencies based on the social conditions and development; analyzing the principle of constructing the organization and operation of the local government agencies based on the comparison with the principles and models of the local government agencies in the world. The dissertation has suggested the criteria for evaluating the current organization and operation of the local government agencies in Vietnam.

Secondly, the dissertation has comprehensively assessed the practicality of the organization and operation of the local government agencies in history and the present, presenting the advantages and disadvantages on the organization and operation of these agencies as well as their reasons.

Thirdly, the dissertation has indicated demands, directions on how to perfect the current organization and operation of local government agencies in Viet Nam. It has also suggested the system of solutions for building active and democratic local government agencies in administrative management and guaranteed the unity of current Vietnam government.

SUPERVISOR

(Signed)

Assoc. Prof. Bui Xuan Duc

RESEARCHER

(Signed)

Tran Cong Dung